

13 Waupun inmates donate from pay

WAUPUN, Wis. (UPI)—Thirteen Waupun state prison inmates have donated a total of $12.53—nearly three days' wages at 35 cents a day—to a group promoting civil rights.

Samuel G. Beers, a Protestant chaplain at the prison, said Monday the donation was sent to assist Measure For Measure, a group which sends funds, food and clothing to needy Mississippi residents and civil rights workers. Beers said he suggested the organization as the recipient.
