

Rights Worker To Give Talk

A Rosemont girl who has done voter registration work in Mississippi will speak at a public meeting March 23 at Radnor Methodist Church, Conestoga road in Rosemont.

Marianne McKay, of Beechwood dr., a senior at Carleton College in Northfield, Minn., will share the platform with M. C. Perry, a Negro scholarship student at Germantown Friends School who was born in Mississippi.

The Main Line Branch of the National Women's Committee for Civil Rights is sponsoring the meeting along with the Philadelphia Area Friends of SNCC (Students' Nonviolent Coordinating Committee).
